NOTHING TO SAY.

By Thomas Atkins.

Nothing to say to me, nothing to say to you, nothing to say to him, nothing to say to her, nothing to say to them, nothing to say to us, nothing to say to you, nothing to say to him, nothing to say to her, nothing to say to them, nothing to say to us. -Adv.

Nothing to say is pretty hard. When once we taste the music of a hymn, we find it hard to say. -Adv.

Eternal hope is based on this, believe and up and say it. When this task is done then come the Holy Spirit. -Adv.

Nothing would I wish perish and die. Or will ever hidden lie. For efforts will inspire our zeal. With regained inspiration then to feel. -Adv.

DOYKIN AND WILLIAMSON'S
COMEDY MAKES HIT AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON

A continuous stream of comedy, mixed with good music and dancing, is the offering of Doykin and Williamson's "Delicate" from "Dixie" Company at The Booker Washington Theatre this week. The show starts with the usual chorus opening, Arthur Doykin has a song, "They Were Marching," and then "The Woman Hater's Union," a rip roaring comedy, presented by Doykin, Gleno Harris, Marguerite Lester and Naomi Tallifer. Miss Lillian Carroll sings "Aching Hearted Blues," supported by the Company, and Pearl Madison renders, "Nobody Lied."

Doykin and Anna Williamson, as a team are a source of much fun and melody with plenty of dancing. Their song number are "Just Like a Rainbow in the Sky," "In Dear Old Tennessee," and "Royal Garden Blues," presented in an instrumental imitation. Robert Perry does a good luck dance, and Miss Lester sings and dances, "The Shells of the Sea." The closing piece is an army burlesque, entitled "The Last Shot," and keeps the audience's attention with laughter. "Everybody's Blues" is the finale.

VAUDEVILLE NEXT WEEK

Four all-star acts of vaudeville will be shown at The Booker Washington Theatre next week. These will consist of the Jack Wagner Trio, featuring "Gladie Jack Wagner," the champion long distance kick dancer; Bob and Brothers, a comedy team of harp and piano; a comedy team, and Happy Ferguson, a humorous monologist. Monday will be "Pay Day" for the patrons.

GONZELL WHITE'S JAZZERS
AT THE GAYETY NEXT WEEK

Miss Gonzell White, St. Louis' favorite singing and dancing society, will be at The Gayety Theatre for one week beginning Sunday with her Jazzers, consisting of 10 all Star Colored performers. Another favorite here, Ed Langford, is in the company. The Jazz act is a part of the big show of "Jimmie Cooper and His Beauty Revue." There are 44 people including a big chorus. Matinees at 2:30 and night shows, 8:15, daily.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

AT THE COMET

Thomas Meighan will be seen at The Comet Theatre this Saturday in "If You Believe It, It's So." The story of a young city crook who finds peace and happiness in the country is delightfully told by a cast of players which includes, in addition to the star, Theodore Roberts, Pauline Starke, Joseph J. Dowling and Charles Ogle.

Jack Holt will be presented in "While Satan Sleeps" on Sunday. Holt has the role of a crook who goes to Paumotu disguised as a minister to clear it up. His wayward son of a bishop and it is this goodness inherent in him which ultimately wins the battle that he wages for his soul. He wins, as expected, the very best of the "Star Dust" will be the feature of Tuesday.

Norma Talmadge will be featured in "Smiling Through" next Thursday and Friday. The production deals with the romance of a beautiful young Kathleen, who is left in the "good hands" of John Carter following the death of her Aunt Moryen. Moryen was fatally wounded by a jealous suitor on the day of her wedding to Carter. When Carter learns that Kathleen is in love with the son of the man who killed his bride he attempts the romance of the young people and the absorbing plot gathers dramatic momentum.

AT THE STAR

Grace Darmond in "Handle With Care" will be the Star Theatre feature this Saturday. It is a satirical comedy-drama and discloses a new angle on the marriage league. Dick Hutton in "The Golden Flame" will be the Sunday special attraction. His role that of a youth of the West today, wherein longhairs and payed streets have supplanted the ranch house and the unfenced lands of an earlier generation. Hutton gives his entire worthiness of his stellar position on the screen by the ease, sincerity and convincingness of his portrayal of the hero who wins out to fame, fortune and love despite many difficulties.

Lillian Gish and Wallace Reid in "The Fatal Marriage," also will "Rogers in 'The Doubling For Romeo' will be double features on Tuesday. The first episode of Charles Hutchinson in "Speed," will be shown on Wednesday. On Thursday and Friday, Harry Carey will be presented in "Man to Man." It recognizes the character of a young man who fights his way from the degradation of a South Sea derelict back to respectability in his home country—the cattle lands of the West. It is a story which might have been written for Carey. It provided him with the he-man of a role which he has made famous on the screen.

THE JEST-MAKERS

Joseph Phillips will be presented in "Hurricane's Eye" at The Picture Palace Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It is a big new story in which Miss Phillips has the role of a wild, untamed girl of the sea who inherited from her father, a smuggler, a spirit of hate and lawlessness and from her mother, the warm, romantic blood of the "Red Sea." The picture is a real "thriller" containing such interesting and exciting scenes that it is a real "thriller" and a destroyer and a big schooner. The feature on Wednesday and Thursday will be "One Clear Call." The locale is a small western town where the routine of the daily life is interrupted by the arrival of a small band of desperadoes.

THEATRES-CONTINUED

And the valley of his oppressors and incidentally avenges the murder of her father at the villain's hands. Guy Bates Post in "The Masquerader" will be featured on Sunday and Friday. The story depicts the struggle of two men, one close in resemblance that the wife of one cannot tell them apart. And the bachelor, who recognizes in her the wife, finds himself at bay because of the sense of honor that he cannot refuse. Trained by long experience, the star gives an intimate study of the characteristics of the two men; one a leader gone astray, and the other an impeccable genius in impoverished circumstances.

THE CASINO

"The Fighting Ranger" will be featured at the Casino Theatre this Saturday. "Ranger Bill" Miller is the star. The story deals with an adventurous gambler who tries to win the beautiful daughter of the Arizona drifter. As she spurs him, he attempts to force her to accept him by getting her father deeply indebted to him. "Ranger Bill," from the west, has dropped into the town and has taken a job as watchman in the night. Through helping the girl's father he wins her undying friendship. The gambler leading a gang of desperadoes decides to rob the mine. This they do and kidnap the girl. Through the gambler's cunning, "Ranger Bill" is accused of the robbery and lands in jail, where he learns of the girl's peril. He realizes that it would be futile to appeal to the sheriff, so he gets away, rounds up a gang and saves the girl. On Sunday, Neal Hart will be seen in "West of the Pecos." It is a thrilling Western drama. "The Sheikh's Wife" will be presented on Tuesday. It tells the story of a romance between a girl, Estelle Graydon, a romance-loving English girl who is a sleek and a snob. After three years of happy married life, complications arise. It reaches with the atmosphere of the desert. The traditions and the customs of the Arabians have been faithfully and naturally reproduced.

AT THE LINCOLN

The Lincoln Theatre will present William S. Hart in "White Oak" this Saturday. It is an exciting photograph. It is an all of action as any Mr. Hart has given us in two years. As Oak Miller, a gambler, he is at his best. The situations are thrilling and many of them are original and novel. "Reported Missing" will be the Sunday feature. Owen Moore is the star. It is hilarious, irrepressible, melodramatic yet it causes the spectator to grip the arms of his seat on account of its complication. On Thursday, Betty Compson and Tom Moore will be seen in "Over the Border." It is the first place it refers to the smuggling of liquor over the border from Canada into the United States; secondly, it tells of the efforts of a murderer to cross the same border after passing through a "border of police." It is a story of the passing of two great leaders over the border of misadventure and standing in the happiness beyond.

THE PENDLETON

Agnes Ayres will be seen at The Pendleton Theatre this Saturday in "Blood and Sand." It is a story of a discontented wife warred against a mistake by the spirit of an 18th century man who had suffered from a similar error. Children, fires, "ship astir" and a clever trained dog, add human interest and "punch" to an entertaining story. "Nice People" will be presented on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The story has to do with a modern girl who resents the sudden assertion of parental authority. In a fit of pique she finds herself accidentally in a seemingly compromising situation. The other man does not always understand but he is always loyal. With his aid and the assistance of a sympathetic aunt, the girl does a right about face that brings happiness in the end, but only after some trying experiences for the young woman. "Blood and Sand" will be shown three days, beginning Wednesday. Rudolph Valentino is the star. It is a story of Spain and the life of a bull-fighter, giving all the nerve and romance of the bull-fighter's existence without presenting those features of a bull-fight not enjoyed by American audiences.

Shrine Quartette Sings For Men's Guild At Maple Avenue Methodist Church

The Shrine Club Club of St. Louis, Temple No. 33, St. Louis, was represented by a quartet of that organization, which appeared on a program under auspices of the Men's Guild of Maple Avenue Methodist Church, white, Belt and Maple avenues. A large audience composed of members of the Guild greeted the Shrine Quartet with vociferous applause when they took their places upon the platform. They opened the program with a group of eight songs, which under the musical direction of Conductor Antonio L. Haskell, were rendered in such a manner as to immediately stamp them as artists in the singing of folk-songs. Throughout all the numbers given by the quartet, the tone stand, ranging from the softest notes to notes of the fullest power, was given with the greatest ease. Mr. Haskell sang a group of songs: "Palm Moon," "Deep River," "Gone With the Wind," "What A Wonderful World," "I've Done My Work." Haskell was presented by an official of the Maple Avenue Methodist Church, which was an illuminated address, by which expression was made of Haskell's work as a singer and a conductor, and the good wishes for his success in the future development of the Shrine Club. The Shrine Quartet was composed of George H. Walker, first tenor; G. W. Draper, second tenor; C. E. Jones, baritone; and James Davis, bass.

Cutting remarks about the boys have not more than one British boy who has been seen.

"MICKY O'NEIL" AND LEAGUE AGES TO PLAY OUR BOYS

Catcher Of Boston Braves Will Lead Club Of Major League Regulars In Effort To Defeat St. Louis Stars Sunday And Monday

COLORED CLUB HAS WON SIX OUT OF NINE GAMES

Have Beaten All-Star Club Of Southerners And Won Series From Detroit And Team Of Picked Stars

The St. Louis Stars baseball club, which Jack Denny, the World Champion prizefighter, is open for all challenges. The colored boys have conquered everything in their path since leaving in their new home. They finished strong in the National Negro League season and immediately began to take on the "aces" of the white leagues. The first to fall was Kavanagh's aggression of all-star from the Southern League. The next was the mighty Detroit Tigers of the American League. Jimmy Tobin, who was "Wahada," a hand-picked team of big salaried men came next and were beaten 2 games to 1. Now comes "Micky" O'Neil with a combination of league stars that look like a foe hard to conquer. "Micky" is catcher for the Boston Braves and the men he has selected are of his caliber. They will play the St. Louis Stars at Stars park, Compton and Market, all Sunday and Monday games starting at 3 o'clock sharp. O'Neil announces as his line-up, the following:

ST. LOUIS STARS WIN SERIES FROM WABADAS

The St. Louis Stars gained the decision in the five game series with Johnny Tobin's Wahada All Stars by winning one game of the final three.

they having captured both contests of the previous week. In winning three out of five games from the Wahada Stars were forced to use every trick in the bag and some small pitching by Bell and Meyers as well as the timely hitting of Meadoo, Charleston and Ray. These three batters did the most to win the series. Meadoo won two of the games with timely hits. His timely single in the eighth inning of the first game clinched the contest and again the full first sacker won the final and deciding game with a ringing double to center, scoring two men in the fifth inning.

Sunday's Game

The Stars won but one game of the three played last week but the one they captured, carried with it the series. The Stars lost Saturday's contest 7 to 1. Sunday's game was a close one. The Stars won 4 to 1 score while the Stars captured Monday's game 5 to 0.

On Saturday Lefty Gockel, a Cardinal recruit, stopped the Stars holding them to six hits and a lone rally. Gockel's double early in the game sent the Stars to fight for eight batters which he issued enabled the Wahada's to score their seven runs. Gockel's double early in the game sent the Stars to fight for eight batters which he issued enabled the Wahada's to score their seven runs.

The Wahada's scored their final runs in the eighth when they chased a pair of flies over the top line and a sacrifice. Walsh and Schmidt singled and Archdeacon sacrificed the pair along and Hawk scored them with a ringing single to left.

the previous Sunday's contest and the Wahada's won by slugging Meyers hard when Reinhardt held the Stars to seven hits. The game was close until the sixth inning when the Wahada's scored to break the 3-2 tie. In the eighth the Wahada's scored three runs and this settled the contest.

Ray-Schmidt's home run drive with Robertson on base in the first inning gave the Wahada two runs to open the game. The Stars countered with one mariner in their half of the first inning.

Meyers held the Wahada's safely in the second, third and fourth, innings. The Stars tied the score and forced a run into the lead by scoring twice in their half of the fourth inning. Blackwell tied the score with a home run to right to open the fifth inning. Higgins rolled to Walsh. Hewitt was hit by a pitched ball. McAdoo came thru with 2 100-000 to center and Hewitt scored. Reinhardt tightened up and fanned Meyers and Russell to end the rally.

The Wahada's tied the score in the fifth. Coleman scored the run by rolling to Warfield. Higgins rolled to Walsh. Hewitt was hit by a pitched ball. McAdoo came thru with 2 100-000 to center and Hewitt scored. Reinhardt tightened up and fanned Meyers and Russell to end the rally.

Schmidt doubled to right in the sixth. Archdeacon beat out a hit to the box. Hawk hit to Higgins and Schmidt was out at the plate. Higgins, Tobin doubled to left center and Robertson scored.

Monday's Game On Monday the Stars won the deciding game of the Wahada series, 5 to 3. Bell pitched great ball after the third inning, holding the All Star batters scoreless after that frame. The Stars, although out of the lead, scored five runs largely due to Berger's wildness.

The Wahada's scored two runs in the first inning. Robertson singled to left. Archdeacon sacrificed him to second. Walsh was safe on Russell's fumble, but Higgins recovered the ball and Robertson was run down between third and home. Walsh reaching third on the play. Schmidt doubled to center and Walsh scored. ## MONARCH SEW UP KANSAS CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Colored Team Wins Four Of First Five Games In Series With American Association Club. Only Need One More Victory.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18.—The Kansas City Blues Association finally won a game from the Monarchs of the National Negro League Tuesday. It was the fifth game in a series of nine for the baseball championship of Kansas City. The Colored team won two straight and after being delayed because of the weather, the series resumed Tuesday night. The Monarchs put over two straight, making four. Then the Blues succeeded in raising the stakes to a string of five straight to annex the City Championship. This appears to be a physical contest considering the strength of the Negro League club.

Monarchs Rally and Win The Blues don't seem able to stop the Monarchs and have thrown off their stride again Sunday when the Colored, exponents of the so-called national pastime staged a wild, winning rally and cut the Goodman down by a 7 to 6 count for the third straight of the series.

Hard hit and poor baseball contributed to the Blues' downfall, although the right arm of Hogan and the lefty swinging of Johnson were the principal reasons for the defeat.

Gas Bono started on the hill for the Blues but gave way in the seventh to Ray Caldwell, who is charged with the defeat. The Goodies went into the lead in the eighth frame. Gas gave flashes of old form at times, but was hit hard most of the way. His best performance was fanning four men that faced him in the third and fourth innings.

Some Runs Open Game The game started as though it would be a battle of home runs. Drake Loses Tuesday. The Blues finally won a game Tuesday and delayed the Monarchs in their championship victory at least another day.

Coming out of a battling slump and getting the kind of pitching that is hard to beat, the Association Club won the fifth game of the series 8 to 2.

Roy Wilkinson was the hero of the afternoon. While sitting in the clubhouse before the game, Roy said that if he was beaten it was the last time he ever hoped to pitch again. Probably that meant it, but he certainly was as if he was hurrying for a job.

Wilkinson held the Negro Club to seven hits, three of them to the infield, walked only two batters and threw three hardline passes. For his proof that Roy can step out when necessary.

"Phink" Drake pitched for the Monarchs. At times Drake had the Blues swinging like Babe Ruth in a world's series but at other times he worked like a Yankee hurler facing the Giants. Thirteen hits were charged against him. A few were scratchy but the batters were not unmanageable.

Monarchs Rally and Win The Blues don't seem able to stop the Monarchs and have thrown off their stride again Sunday when the Colored, exponents of the so-called national pastime staged a wild, winning rally and cut the Goodman down by a 7 to 6 count for the third straight of the series.

Hard hit and poor baseball contributed to the Blues' downfall, although the right arm of Hogan and the lefty swinging of Johnson were the principal reasons for the defeat.

Gas Bono started on the hill for the Blues but gave way in the seventh to Ray Caldwell, who is charged with the defeat. The Goodies went into the lead in the eighth frame.
